

Help Heilbron Police trace Brutal murder suspects on the run

Police in Heilbron requests community assistance to trace brutal murder suspects after a man was found killed in Phiritona, Heilbron on Sunday 03 April 2022.

Police were summoned to the scene at about 10:15 in the morning. On arrival at the scene, a lifeless body of a male was found lying on its back next to the fence. On closer inspection it was discovered that the victim was having an open wound on his stomach which could have been inflicted with a sharp object. However the object that was used was not found on the scene.

Police were summoned to the scene at about 10:15 in the morning.

The family member was traced and identified the victim as Sello Hilarious Sello 37, a resident of Phiritona, Heilbron. According to information, the victim was visiting the other family members last night (Saturday) at the informal settlement. It is further alleged that he left to his house from that family residence at about 23:30. It is not clear what happened to him in the process before he was found brutally murdered.

The motive for this murder is unknown at present. Suspects who are also unknown are still at large. Investigation into this matter is currently underway. Community members are therefore requested to assist the police with information that can lead to the arrest of the suspects. Anyone with information that can assist may contact Lt Col Mosiuoa Mokhethi of Heilbron SAPS on 082 525 2303 or MySAPS App for anonymous tip-off.
