

I Have Made It!

After being crowned as the winner in the Child Care Category of 100 Young Ambassadors 2020, Vuyane Latha of Zamdela, Sasolburg is now Mr Teen United Nations South Africa 2021. Vuyane scooped the award last week.

Through his Non-profit Organisation called Kopano ke Matla Charity Organisation, the young ambassador has been hard at work focusing mainly at knitting blankets, gloves and donating toys to various orphanages and vulnerable children across the province of Free State. On his achievement Vuyane said "First of all let me give thanks to the almighty father for bringing me this far and giving me the strength, courage, faith and determination to succeed". Vuyane said it is with deepest appreciation and sincere gratitude that he thanks all his well wishers, supporters, friends, and family for being so supportive of me throughout my entire journey of Mr. Teen United Nations pageant South Africa.

Kopano ke Matla Charity Organisation initially started as a charity by Thandeka Latha & Vuyane Latha with a crocheting and knitting blankets programme called "Knit-A-Blanket" which provided hand-made blankets for less fortunate kids & youth. After a successfully ran "Knit-a-Blanket" programme, founders realised that more community development programmes are needed, other campaigns such as food parcels, sanitary pads & tampons for young girls, stationery, school shoes and Christmas drive were added.

"To the United Nations Pageant South Africa team and Mpho Botha, you guys have influenced my life in such a positive way, words cannot express my appreciation.

To all media house who hosted me and gave me an opportunity for interviews during this journey thank you so much. To Knit-a-blanket Kopano ke Matla Charity Organisation, Purton charity group (UK) and Big heart knitters group (Croatia).

Thank you so much for everything you did for the children in South Africa who are in need. Every life is a story, Thank you for being part of my story.- Staff Reporter
