 - + Bringing the spirit of collaboration and celebration into the world.
- Thuba Pelo Mosadi Women of

Worth Awards are the brainchild of Tebogo "Unathi" Nare. "It's always worthwhile to make others aware of their worth," said Nare. Calls for nomination in this awards where for the powerful women, who deserve public recognition. "Nominating a woman, you know is one of the most powerful ways to appreciate and acknowledge her, in a way that lets her know she MATTERS. Your nomination is something she will remember and be impacted by forever," said Nare. Kompe who is a VIP Protector by profession said she is grateful for her nomination and will continue contributing and working with the community on many challenges they are facing.

"My focus is mainly on women and girls who are going through a lot of challenges in their lives including widows, women who are going through divorce etc. The work that I'm doing is mainly for man and being to adapt to such kind of a work also motivated me" said Kompe.

The 2023 Women of Worth Awards ceremony will be held in Mpumalanga next month. To vote for Matshepo Kompe for the PUBLIC CHOICE AWARD –

Applications Now Open.....

The South African Police Service (SAPS) has embarked on its 2024/2025 #PoliceTrainees recruitment process in which an additional 10 000 youth between the ages of 18 and 35 will be trained to serve as men and women in blue.

The announcement was made by the Deputy Minister of Police, Mr Cassel Mathale during a National #SAPSCareer Expo in Mdantsane in the Eastern Cape on Saturday, 05 August 2023.

The career expo provided the SAPS with the opportunity to showcase, educate and expose communities to the various career paths in the SAPS. Application forms are available as of Saturday, 05 August 2023 on the SAPS website: www.saps.gov.za under the police trainees section. Application forms will also be made available at all police stations from Monday, 07 August 2023.

There are currently 9000 trainees in academies throughout the country, another 1000 will be enlisted for training in January 2024. This will bring the total number of recruits trained to 10 000 in the 2023/2024 financial year. The 2024/2025 cohort is thus expected to commence their training in April 2024.

The Deputy Minister of Police, Mr Cassel Mathale says the aim is to ensure sufficient boots on the ground to serve and protect the communities we serve.

The National Commissioner of the SAPS, General Fannie Masemola says the organisation is targeting those with a passion for public service.

The SAPS management wishes all applicants well in this process. <http://www.saps.gov.za/newsroom/selnewsdetails.php?nid=47652>
